Report description:

Many companies in South Africa are adopting a hybrid working model, a trend that was facilitated by the COVID-19 pandemic. Such a development has boosted volume sales of headphone products, which saw continued growth in 2023. The main reason behind this increase in demand was the requirement for employees to equip themselves with the necessary tools to allow them to work from their respective homes, with minimal challenges and disturbances. Headphones are seen as a critical piece of equipment wh...
