Report description:

Savoury snacks registered an improved performance in retail volume terms in 2023. Growth was boosted by the return to out-of-home activities and the pursuit of products that catered to the need for on-the-go consumption occasions, with many consumers turning to savoury snacks as meal replacements. This trend was particularly noticeable in the case of products with health-related claims, such as nuts, seeds and trail mixes, although it was also seen across the entire category, with products such...
