Report description:

Following years of pandemic-related restrictions and industry uncertainties, 2023 marks the definitive resurgence of travel and tourism in Brazil. The World Health Organization has officially declared the end of the Public Health Emergency of International Concern related to COVID-19. Furthermore, in June 2023, the National Health Surveillance Agency (Anvisa) confirmed the removal of all pandemic-related entry constraints for travellers to Brazil. Amid this new context, the country is tackling i...
