Report description:

Airlines have rebounded strongly in 2023 with sales seeing a full recovery in current value terms while passenger numbers are expected to come close to pre-pandemic levels by the end of the year. With the pandemic declared over by the World Health Organisation in early 2023 most markets have lifted their remaining COVID-19 protocols while consumers feel more confident about flying again. As a result, airlines have continued to benefit from the pent-up demand that developed during the pandemic, w...
