Report description:

In 2023, airlines in Sweden continue to see a rebound in passengers, as consumers place a higher importance on travel. Despite the relatively difficult economic climate, the volume of arrivals by air returned to pre-pandemic levels. However, air outbound travel and domestic tourism by air has yet to fully recover in volume terms. The notable surge in air ticket prices, attributed to factors like more expensive fuel, has resulted in higher revenues for airlines and dynamic growth in current value...
