Report description:

Outbound tourism flows recorded a strong performance in Croatia during 2023 despite the impact of high inflation and the cost of living crisis on the discretionary spending of local people. In general, Croatian consumers are still hungry for leisure holidays after they were unable to travel throughout 2020 and 2021 due to the closure of international borders, among other impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic. Within this context, many consumers chose to continue investing in leisure holidays whilst r...
