Report description:

The tourism industry in Switzerland was strongly affected by the COVID-19 crisis over the 2020-2022 period. In 2023, the behaviour of travellers is expected to return to normal to a large extent. 2023 started with a positive winter season. Despite unfavourable weather conditions, more overnight stays were booked than in the previous year. The destinations affected by the warm weather and lack of snow created alternative offers such as wellness options and thermal baths, as well as snow-independence...
