Report description:

Travel and tourism in South Africa has been sustained by the domestic market despite major airlines being grounded in 2022 and an increase in aviation fuel prices. Tourist arrivals from Europe and the US have started to regain momentum in 2023, with visitors choosing to stay for longer due to South Africa's value-for-money reputation and the weak currency (USD1 equals ZAR18.63). The Department of Home Affairs (DHA) is also finalising specifications for remote working visas to be implemented in 2...
