Report description:

As travel suffered due to COVID-19 in 2020-2021, retail value in bookings also saw a clear decrease. With restrictions starting to lift in 2022, travel began to increase, with retail value in 2022 around the 2018-2019 level, with pent-up demand aiding sales. However, travel outside of Europe continued to be lower. Moving into 2023, trends are normalising, with increasing outbound and domestic travel. Due to higher prices and general inflation, retail value is expected to significantly increase c...
