Report description:

Dermatologicals continues to achieve strong growth in 2023 driven by health and wellness trends and premiumisation in some product categories. Rising unit prices in response to inflation, which has impacted the entire consumer health category, has further boosted current value growth in 2023, reaching into the double-digits. Younger consumers' strong focus on appearance, supported by the role of social media in their lives, has led many to pay particular attention to skin care. This supports dem...
