Report description:

In 2023, paediatric consumer health continues to witness a strong performance, with current value sales predicted to be higher than in the previous year. In the years following the pandemic, the increase spread of common viruses and lower levels of immunity among children, have caused a large increase in paediatric OTC sales, as more kids had coughs, colds and viruses that required paediatric medications. Nappy (diaper) rash treatments is expected to record the highest retail value sales growth...
