Report description:

In 2023, double-digit food inflation has seen consumers reduce their overall consumption across categories, with butter, cooking fats, and margarine and spreads all set to see retail volume declines. This is the second year that the prices of margarine and spreads have seen double-digit growth, driven by global and local rises in edible oils. While South Africa produces edible oils locally, it also imports these products from Ukraine, amongst other countries, to meet local demand, and the contin...
