Report description:

Cheese is expected to be one of the strongest performing dairy products in 2023, with double-digit value growth, as well as healthy volume growth. Lower-income buyers continue to consume unpackaged soft cheese (usually unbranded), which is available in most independent grocers across the country. Mid-income consumers also consume unpackaged soft cheese, although they continue to migrate towards similar branded and packaged alternatives, which are found across both traditional and modern grocery...
