Report description:

The local cheese industry is facing challenges in 2023, as imported products are favoured by retailers. In February 2023, the Serbian government introduced an import duty of 30 dinars per kilogram of cheese to protect domestic production from the excessive number of imports entering the country. The import tax applies to seven different types of cheese including Emmental, cheddar, edam, tilsit, kashkaval, maasdam and gouda. However, local dairy farmers are still struggling against the growing su...
