Report description:

The changes in consumer behaviour brought about by the inflationary pressures that started in early 2022 resulted in a decline in retail volume sales of cheese in 2022, while current value sales remained positive. In 2023, although a return to retail volume growth is expected, this will be limited, and below the pre-pandemic rates of increase, although again, current value growth is set to be dynamic. Another factor hampering growth is that there has been a consistent trend amongst adults to pla...
