Report description:

2023 has been a tough financial year for consumers, with double-digit food inflation, rising interest rates, and rolling blackouts. Several categories within dairy products and alternatives are set to record double-digit retail current value growth due to inflation, but inflation will also contribute to declining volume sales in most categories. Consumers have been prioritising housing and transport, leaving their food budget as the area where cuts have been made to make ends meet. This has mean...
