Report description:

Dermatologicals is expected to register moderate constant value growth in 2023. Geopolitical tensions in the region have led to a significant increase in the number of immigrants from Ukraine, Russia and Belarus, and this is expected to contribute to volume growth. In addition, with society again operating normally after the pandemic, certain products perform well. An example is hair loss treatments, which is expected to register healthy volume growth, as people look after their appearance once...
