Report description:

Drinking milk products is witnessing growth in both current retail value and volume, despite the huge increase in prices that were seen during the first quarter of 2023. This increase results from rising global prices of milk products, with the devaluation of the Egyptian pound boosting prices by more than 60%. This followed several waves of price increases in 2022, when local production was not sufficient for the demand, and local milk products prices rose due to the increase in animal feed and...
