Report description:

Other dairy has been strongly affected by the inflation crisis with prices going up and putting pressure on demand. High inflation has also placed significant pressure on consumers' disposable income, pushing consumers to look for value-for-money but also to focus on essentials. In this context, other dairy declined in retail volume terms in 2022. With inflation stabilising slightly in 2023 the category has seen a slower decline in retail volume terms although sales continue to decline. Aside fr...
