Report description:

Retail volume sales of other dairy has made a marginal improvement in 2023, following a year of decline in the previous year. The shift back to the foodservice channel hampered retail sales in 2022, but with sales growth slowing in the horeca channel in 2023, volume sales have once again recovered. The increase in snacking occasions has enabled segments like fromage frais and quark to enjoy modest volume growth, as they are associated with health and provide some nutritional value, especially ch...
