Report description:

Due to the economic uncertainty in the country, most other dairy categories are showing a drop in volume sales in 2023, especially chilled and shelf stable desserts as they are not perceived to be essential items. Decline is also attributable to the declining birth rate in the birth rate in Latvia as the main consumers of these products are children. Cream is also experiencing a drop in sales, especially products with a high fat content, as they are the most expensive, and price-sensitive consum...
