Report description:

Much like butter and cheese, the volume demand for other dairy products also experienced a decline starting from the second half of 2022. As people grew more comfortable with dining out, the demand for cooking and baking ingredients decreased significantly. This led to a substantial reduction in the demand for cream and plain condensed milk. Additionally, the relaxation of pandemic-related restrictions and a decrease in remote work led to a resurgence in demand for takeaway coffee, further reduc...
