Report description:

As the situation around COVID-19 began to resolve in 2022, people were returning to work. However, the war in Ukraine caused inflation, with the price of raw milk rising, hampering growth. Since products such as desserts, fromage frais and creams are not viewed as necessities, they were all negatively affected by the steep price increase in 2022, that is continued into 2023. While the price increase in 2023 is slower, we still see retail volume decline in most categories, with chilled snacks see...
