Report description:

As consumers are having to adjust their budgets to deal with high inflation, some are having to decide to prioritise essential products over those perceived as expendable. Sugar confectionery is one of the non-essentials that has been suffering to some degree from budget limitations, and is expected to experience a slowdown in current value growth in 2023 when compared with the previous year. However, this trend has been balanced with the constant efforts from companies to attract consumers' att...
