Report description:

Total volume growth of wine in South Korea notably slowed in 2022, with wine sales reaching a period of stabilisation following the category's dynamic performance through off-trade during the first year of the pandemic, and through on-trade in 2021. Some wine importers planned to change their business portfolios and reduce their wine offer, while increasing demand for other alcoholic drinks, such as whiskies, presented another challenge.

Euromonitor International's Wine in South Korea report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data (2018-2022), allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they legislative, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts to 2027 illustrate how the market is set to change.
