Report description:

Sales of analgesics in Tunisia are in decline in retail volume terms in 2023 which can be attributed to several factors. Firstly, there has been a stagnation in prices since 2019, which has limited the potential for revenue growth in the sector. Additionally, the decrease in purchasing power among Tunisian consumers has led to a reduction in demand for analgesics, with consumers often only purchasing these products when essential. The economic challenges being faced by the country have impacted...
