Report description:

Consumer health registered strong sales growth in Qatar in 2023 thanks to strong purchasing power and rising interest in leading healthy lifestyles. The country's high obesity rate has combined with the sharpened focus on health and wellbeing that has emerged from the COVI-19 pandemic to drive sales as consumers are interested in minimising their chances of succumbing to serious illness. In addition, self-diagnosis and self-medication are becoming more common, boosting demand for OTC products.
