Report description:

Skin diseases across all age groups continues to drive growth for dermatologicals. Skin diseases are common in rural areas due to poor hygiene and in urban areas due to overcrowded neighbourhoods, with many having no access to proper sanitary facilities. Moreover, eczema and other skin disorders are growing, partly due to worsening pollution. Dermo-cosmetics are also seeing growth, driven by urbanisation and increased access to social media. However, these consumers are mainly higher income, as...
