Report description:

While digestive remedies is poised to post robust growth in total current value sales in 2023, this is mainly due to substantial price hikes amidst persistently high inflation in Hungary. All categories are set to contract in volume terms, in part because falling purchasing power has made consumers inclined to do without these products if possible, or to only purchase them when they are immediately required rather than to store for use at a later date. Nonetheless, in most cases rates of volume...
