Report description:

Value sales of fine wines/champagne and spirits grew by 14% in current value terms to reach THB3.6 billion in 2023 as this category continued its recovery from the sales it lost during the pandemic. This performance is being driven by, among other things, a consumer desire to enjoy themselves following the strictures of the pandemic. Enjoying a drink with friends remains a popular leisure activity, particularly following the constraints placed on consumers in 2020-2022. The return of celebration...
