Report description:

In 2023, Turkey continues to see the opening of new hotels, in line with accelerating tourism flows in the country. The luxury format is expected to register the highest number of new hotel outlets, due to investments from both existing and new companies in lodging in Turkey and faster inbound tourism flows. The majority of new hotel openings are earmarked for Istanbul, the capital city and main tourist location. The luxury format is also projected to see highest (triple-digit) growth in current...
