Report description:

Value sales of premium and luxury cars fell by 7% to INR245.9 billion in 2023. While supplies have improved, there is still a massive order backlog, with the waiting period for most luxury models stretching from two to 10 months. In addition, while sales nearly halved due to the pandemic in 2020, a very strong recovery was seen in the subsequent two years, including growth of more than 70% in current value terms in 2022. This meant that, in spite of the decline in 2023, sales were still well above...
