Report description:

Tourist visitor levels in Romania recovered in 2023, despite global macroeconomic pressures like high inflation and the rapid escalation of living costs. International tourism increased by 40% January-July compared with the corresponding period in 2022. Expedia reported a 55% increase in searches for hotels in Bucharest, after the release of a Netflix series, "Wednesday". In addition, Euronews has reported a strong increase in interest in the Romanian attractions featured on the TV series, leadi...
