Report description:

In a year marked by economic uncertainties, consumer electronics has been negatively affected, especially in terms of volume sales. Consequently, only a few categories are expected to show positive development in both volume and value sales in 2023 - one of which is headphones. The widespread integration of such products into the everyday lives of German consumers, spanning from the simple enjoyment of music to sports and work-related activities, has made these products highly resilient to crisi...
