Report description:

Algiers and Constantine stand out as Algeria's primary economic hubs, with Djelfa showing significant potential for future growth. Tibissah and Setif are poised for substantial increases in internet penetration. Nonetheless, these cities will face ongoing challenges, including near-term concerns such as global economic slowdown, inflation and financial tightening, as well as long-term infrastructure strains resulting from rapidly growing populations.

Euromonitor International's City Review reports analyse key trends and developments in 126 world's major cities. They provide localised city information in terms of economy, consumer lifestyles, housing and transport and city environment and offer valuable insights for strategic planning.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
