Report description:

With COVID-19 still a relatively recent memory, Malaysians continued to place a strong emphasis on preventative health measures, including the intake of dietary supplements. Consumers saw these products as an effective way of boosting their immune systems, to prevent colds and flu, for example. As such, immunity was a key positioning found among many dietary supplements in 2023, with tiger milk mushroom, in particular, benefitting from a high degree of consumer interest, especially when partnere...
