Report description:

United Spirits continued to lead the overall market for spirits in India in 2022, being the local representative of global player Diageo Plc. However, the company witnessed a significant decline in volume share during the year, as it shifted its focus towards premiumisation, emphasising value over volume. Even before the pandemic, the company had favoured a "value over volume" strategy and had franchised out some of its well-known economy brands, on a fixed-fee basis, to external entities in ove...
