Report description:

Menswear continues to exhibit a notable slowdown in both value and retail volume growth in 2023 compared to 2022. This is in contrast to womenswear, which is demonstrating more robust expansion. Nevertheless, certain product categories such as men's jumpers, and shorts and trousers are exhibiting greater dynamism due to their affordability as basic items. However, perceived as less essential items by the male demographic, men's swimwear and underwear are experiencing contractions. This phenome...
