Report description:

With the removal of lockdowns and the reopening of Hong Kong's border, sales of childrenswear have notably rebounded in 2023. However, local demand for childrenswear remains tepid. The declining birth rate in Hong Kong was already placing pressure on sales of childrenswear pre-pandemic. In addition, local parents are being more cost-conscious during a period of economy uncertainty, and reducing unnecessary purchases. Parents in Hong Kong are more willing to spend on their children's education in...
