Report description:

Filipinos, in general, are not fans of layering. Instead, the tropical climate of the Philippines means that they are usually fairly minimalist in terms of clothing. Hosiery products are widely seen to be too hot and often unnecessary to wear. As an example, Filipinos love wearing slippers around even when going to shopping malls, especially in the provinces, making them less likely to purchase socks. Even with growing purchasing power, Filipinos are still thrifty and would strongly prioritise n...
