Report description:

In 2022, vacuum cleaners experienced a decline in its volume sales, and this is set to be followed by a year of only slow growth in 2023. This marks a trend towards normalisation after a period of robust growth witnessed in the first two years of the pandemic. This surge in sales was primarily attributed to higher home hygiene concerns stemming from increased time spent at home, and the prevailing pandemic conditions. However, as the pandemic situation evolved and daily routines adapted, the dem...
