Report description:

Inflation in Colombia reached its peak in 2022 and, although it significantly decelerated in the first half of 2023, records continue to show high inflation rates. Food prices, particularly those of baked goods, were no exception to this trend. The costs of producing baked goods have surged in recent years. In 2022, the cost increases were primarily driven by the sharp rise in the international price of wheat, largely due to the Russian invasion of Ukraine, and the depreciation of the local curr...
