Report description:

Whilst the rising production and logistics costs of 2022 have eased, breakfast cereals prices continue their upward trajectory in 2023 as retailers seek to maintain high margins, with no government system to keep them in check. The category still manages to record volume growth in 2023 as breakfast cereals are very popular amongst children, especially tourists from western countries. Foreign tourists account for a sizeable portion of demand, and traditional breakfasts (toast, bacon, eggs, jam) o...
