Report description:

Concentrates has continued to grow in retail volume and value terms in 2023, with both liquid and powder concentrates seeing healthy gains. Growth has been much stronger in current value terms, however, which is largely due to an inflation-driven increase in prices. Nonetheless, sales of liquid concentrates have been constrained by the increasing number of consumers who have switched to juice which is perceived to be more natural and healthier, with juice drinks (up to 24% juice) proving particu...
