Report description:

Loans taken out for education purposes, which include the HECS-HELP loan provided by the government, continues to grow at a moderate rate in 2023. This reflects the high engagement of Australians with tertiary education, both universities and TAFE institutes. Pathways to get into higher education courses are always evolving and are becoming increasingly accessible compared to previous years. Students no longer have to solely rely on their high school results to gain a place on a university course...
