Report description:

Consumer lending in 2023 is experiencing a slowdown due to the rapid rise in interest rates and the prevailing economic uncertainty. There is a notable increase in interest in quick loans from non-banking institutions and card lending. The surge in prices and declining disposable incomes, influenced by inflation, has driven the demand for quick credit to cover everyday expenses. Additionally, the outstanding balance in consumer credit and non-card lending is growing, primarily because rising liv...
