Report description:

Numerous consumers have increased their reliance on credit to enable them to afford higher retail prices in 2023, as the UK economy has continued to be impacted by high inflation and the rising cost of living. As a result, card lending is set to experience growth in 2023, both in terms of gross lending value and the outstanding balance. Nevertheless, as the population has seen their disposable income shrink, the number of people who have missed two or more credit payments has increased between 2...
