Report description:

Consumer credit and lending have experienced substantial growth in the past year. In March 2023, the Central Bank of Egypt reported a significant increase in consumer credit. The rise is attributed to an increase in both local and foreign currency liquidity, shifts in consumer behaviour, and a greater reliance on bank loans and credit to maintain current lifestyles, despite ongoing inflation rates and currency devaluation.

Euromonitor International's Consumer Lending in Egypt report establishes the size and structure of the market for ATMs cards, smart cards, credit cards, debit cards, charge cards, pre-paid cards and store cards.
