Report description:

In comparison with Eurozone countries, the UK economy has continued to be impacted by high inflation and the soaring cost of living in 2023. While rising electricity and gas prices drove inflation in 2022, they have been gradually decreasing in 2023, and what is now driving continued high inflation is the country's dramatic increase in the prices of food and non-alcoholic beverages. Nevertheless, consumer lending is set to continue to see a positive performance, with both consumer credit and mor...
