Report description:

2023 was a year of stable, modest retail volume growth and strong double-digit retail value growth in current terms for cooking ingredients and meals in Bosnia and Herzegovina as high inflation and subsequent significant unit price growth all of categories put some pressure on demand. Rampant unit price inflation was largely due to the ongoing Ukraine conflict, which has put pressure on supply chains in key categories, not least edible oils, especially the dominant category of sunflower oil. Mea...
